

pleasantly-situated Apartment Lot, with or without the comfort.—Apply, No.
c4373

apartments, within two
desired.—Mrs. Halbar,
c4343

white seven-roomed Cottage, 18a, weekly to careful
c4381

Church Walks; very Promenade; mountain
and attendance; also,
c4380

Let, fro
lineas por

ew.—Rich
d (late of
eo Apartm
Villa.

attendance
Pringle;

oderate l
5 and 34, Queen Street,
c5120

oderate.—Misses Clap-
opposite sea. c3246

sive terms, two guineas
t, Charlton Yearsley,
c4552

at moderate charges.
y Post. c5131

to all respectable Bor-
hand and any security.
No connection with
0, Daily Post. c24

vanced on Mortgage.—
Waterloo Street, Bir-
c3245

Leasehold and Freehold
50, Daily Post. c3635

st-class Leasehold Villa
09, Daily Post. c5360

ork a good Trade. No
c5039

good personal security.
c4915

months. Valuable long
445, Daily Post. c4432

W.D.

, by Belgrave Road, or
ur Pipe, marked B B B;
l.—Address, 520, Daily
c5323

Birmingham Daily News September 9th 1895

Lady Grant, wife of Sir Charles Grant, K.C.S.I., died on Saturday, in Hyde Park Place. She was the daughter of the Right Hon. Henry Baillie, of Redcastle, N.B.

The Russian thistle sent to America by the Mennonites in their first importation of seed wheat, is becoming so thickly spread in parts of Dakota as to cause serious alarm.

A gentleman holding an official position under the Belgian Government at Brussels was drowned at Ostend on Sunday while attempting to save his son, who was also drowned.

n Dan-
n a gas
e until

“con-
ributor
of suo

several

with the administrators of the Congo State. Mr. Stanley has now gone to Switzerland.

Tennessee has 300,000 worthless dogs, and a statistical citizen computes that 30,000,000 pounds of bacon, or meat for 10,000 able-bodied men for a whole year, could be produced by feeding to hogs the food consumed by the dogs.

A telegram from Rome states that the steamer Wills left Genoa on Monday for Malaga, and, in consequence of a sudden gale, she sank south of Savona. A boat with fifteen men of the crew reached Genoa in a pitiable state.

The Great Grimsby Ice Company have announced their intention of sailing their fleets and steam cutters from four or five different ports, as the fishermen refuse to permit the introduction of the winter fleeting system at Grimsby.

The Mullinavat evictions are at an end, the cases having been amicably settled between the landlord and tenants. It was during the attempt to carry out these convictions a fortnight ago that serious rioting with the constabulary took place.

A gentleman, name unknown, jumped out of the Scotch down express three miles from Kendal, about half-past four on Monday morning. He was conveyed to the Kendal Memorial Hospital, and is reported not to be dangerously injured.

Lady Frederick Cavendish has presented to the Corporation of Barrow-in-Furness an oil painting of her deceased husband, feeling that it will be valued by the inhabitants of a town in which the late Lord Frederick ever took so warm and deep an interest.

Mr. John Williams, a Socialist lecturer, was for a second